

Tallgrass

Recovery Art Show

A Call to Artists

This September, Tallgrass Recovery, Face It Together Sioux Falls, Avera, Volunteers of America, Bartels Counseling and Meaningful Medicine will present the first ever Art & Recovery show to celebrate National Recovery Month. This year's theme will be "What Recovery Means to You". We are looking for artists who have been affected by alcohol and drug addiction; however they define it, and are actively working towards recovery in their life. The submissions are open to anyone who has been affected by addiction.

For consideration please email no more than 3 images (jpegs) to: tallgrassrecovery@gmail.com Or if preferred a cd of submission can be mailed to:

*Art & Recovery c/o Tallgrass Recovery
2601 S. Minnesota Ave. Suite 105 PMB 378
Sioux Falls, SD 57105*

All submissions must include artist's name, age, contact information and an artist statement on what recovery means to them that is no longer than 140 characters

Special thanks to our partners!

All submissions must be to us by August 31

*One night showing and reception is scheduled for September 13

EXPOSURE from 6-9pm. EXPOSURE is located at 333 S. Phillips Ave, Sioux Falls, SD.